Form 990 - Organization's Mission

The New Mexico Humanities Council supports and conducts innovative and imaginative programs throughout the state that lead to a greater understanding of, and motivate interest in, the richness of our human experience and heritage. We inspire in both residents and visitors an appreciation for the rich diversity of land, people, and ideas, providing the foundation on which to build a better future for us all.

We seek out and fund quality humanities programs for presentation to public audiences throughout the state. Through our grants program, we support worthy projects and organizations which deal with topics ranging from local history and culture to international affairs.

These programs enrich the cultural lives of the state's citizens. Our Humanities Resource Center (HRC) conducts our Chautauqua Programs, Speakers Bureau and Grant Programs. Other programs include an annual New Mexico History Teachers Institute, the Smithsonian Institution Museum on Main Street Program and National History Day.

Bringing the humanities to the public enriches the cultural life of the state's citizens who contribute to the consideration of public and social issues and policy. New Mexico has diverse cultures that influence our contemporary life. The mission and goals of NMHC reflect its history, its current relationship with its principal funder, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and sustained commitments by its Board of Directors.
