National History Day • University of New Mexico

- History Day attendees can park in the C lot on the corner of Redondo and Las Lomas, or any A or B lot on campus.
- Any valid handicapped tag is sufficient to park in the lot north of DSH.
- Buses may drop off students then park at Johnson Field (on Redondo Drive).
- Registration is on the first floor of Dane Smith Hall, and all judging rooms are on the first or second floor. Judges only on the third floor; absolutely no unauthorized access.
- Exhibits and performances are on the second floor. Please use the ramp to access the second floor, leave your props or exhibits, then go to registration.
- Exhibit set up starts at 7:45 am and registration starts at 8 am.
- The awards ceremony starts in the Anthropology lecture hall (ANTH 163) at 2:15 with a Chautauqua performance by Noel Pugach on Harry S. Truman.
