Thursday, Oct. 20, 6:30 pm: Well Founded Fear
“Groundbreaking, as well as devastating...if it's life-and-death drama you're looking for, with entire futures hinging on a few words, this is the place to go.” —Kenneth Turan, LA Times.
Discussion: Dr. Jessica Goodkind & Eric Ndaheba

Thursday, Nov. 3, 6:30 pm: The Journey
Matthew Cassel's new documentary traces the remarkable journey of a Syrian refugee from his home in Damascus across half of Europe and finds "a human story about ordinary lives disrupted by extraordinary circumstances." –Ceasefire. Discussion: Julia Hess & Sam Ali

Weds, Nov. 9, 6:30 pm: The Harvest/La Cosecha
"La Cosecha...follows a 16-year-old boy and two girls, 12 and 14, through one harvest cycle, depicting their lives as a more or less voluntary indentured servitude and provides a detailed, sometimes heartbreaking portrait of a permanent American underclass.” –NY Times. Discussion: Michelle Otero & Arturo Sandoval

Weds, Nov. 16, 6:30 pm: The Wind of Al-Amal
“The Wind of Al-Amal is the first US/French co-production about one of the world's largest refugee crises: the invisible plight of Iraqi exiles. Ten years later: is anyone still paying attention?” –Filmmedia
Discussion: Suha Amer & Rana Saad
